

PREVENTATIVE SURVIVAL TACTIC'S

Presenter's Guide

- Discipline : In-service and Specialized Training
- Learning Programme : Preventative Survival Tactics
- Module : Preventative Survival Tactics

Module number :
Code number :

Preventative Survival Tactic's: Acknowledgements

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The following persons need to be acknowledge for their contributions to the development of this learning programme;

- Inspector Sias De K Fourie Trainer at POP unit Faure. He did years long research into the mental aspects of survival. His concept lecture on mental preparation was a source document for this programme. He presented lectures for POP members which was converted for the purpose of this programme.
- Sergeant Brain Willis Training officer for Calgary Police department. He presented a course on verbal control which form part of this course. He allowed research in his department and assisted on e-mail.
- Capt Benoit Van Houtte Training officer for Belgium Gendamerie. He assisted in providing training material from Belgium.
- Sergeant Ethan K Wilson Oregon Department of State Police. For material he sent on e mail.
- Commander T Tounssaint Ex Special Force commander and marshal arts specialist. Experienced SWAT trainer in United States. Personal discussions and technical support.
- Supt Brain Bell Royal Ulster Police. Research into his departments firearms training.
- Kristina Ambrosiani Swedish National Police College. Study into Swedish firearms training. Demonstrations were given on tactical approach of a suspect which were used in this programme
- Capt Lee Anne Hayward POP Development Services. Perused the language.